

Since the 1970s, American aid to Israel has been open and open-ended.
According to Washington Report on Middle East Affairs (wrmea.com)

U.S Financial Aid To Israel amounts to:

Benefits to Israel of U.S. Aid Since 1949 (As of November 1, 1997)
–amounts will be much larger if 1997-2003 aid figures are included.

Foreign Aid Grants and Loans
$74,157,600,000

Other U.S. Aid (12.2% of Foreign Aid)
$9,047,227,200

Interest to Israel from Advanced Payments
$1,650,000,000

Grand Total
$84,854,827,200

Total Benefits per Israeli
$14,630

Cost to U.S. Taxpayers of U.S. Aid to Israel

Grand Total
$84,854,827,200

Interest Costs Borne by U.S.
$49,936,680,000

Total Cost to U.S. Taxpayers
$134,791,507,200

Total Cost per American
$23,240